

THE CROOKS CHRONICLE

New Ownership of The Bank of Avilla!

Ms. Sourdough—Bank of Avilla Owner. As the new owner of The Bank of Avilla, Mrs. Sourdough will now have control over all previous and future accounts. The real question is will she protect them or borrow from them?

Creepy Karpis—Part of Barker-Karpis gang and Sourdough's man. Named for his sinister smile that sent chills up the spines of many. The Barker-Karpis gang never hesitated to take out anyone who got in their way.

Doc Barker—Head of Barker-Karpis gang. Notorious for stealing cars, stealing money, and stealing anything he can get his hands on. Barker worked closely with Karpis and together they were unstoppable.

Ma Barker—Mother of Doc Barker. Ma Barker doesn't like her son's criminal involvement but she has been known to hide, take care of, and lie for him and his gang when they're in a pinch.

Clyde Barrow—The Barrow Gang Member. His first arrest for not returning a rental car is the least of Clyde's crimes. Though robbing and killing many, Clyde claims it is all revenge against the prison system.

Bonnie Parker—Clyde's main lady. The beautiful and young Bonnie is always chain-smoking by Clyde's side. She looks too innocent to aid in all his ruthless crimes but we may never know for sure.

Pretty Boy Floyd—Bank Robber. Named after his young appearance, some view Floyd as a notorious cop-killer from the Kansas City Massacre while others view him as a tragic victim of hard times.

Holly Hitman—Infamous Hitman and Floyd's Assistant. If anyone ever wanted a person to disappear, Holly is the person to ask. She is the best hit man around this area. She swears she didn't harm Ken Kale though.

Minnie Moonshiner—Moonshine Supplier. Minnie is said to have bribed to authorities to turn a blind-eye on her business. With the most lucrative business, Minnie will do anything to protect it.

In honor of The Bank of Avilla's new ownership, Mrs. Sourdough would like to host a dinner party to introduce herself to the public in order to gain trust, business, and investments. Since establishment in 1915, The Bank of Avilla has had a bad reputation for being the target of many robberies by local robin hood mobsters, robbing from the rich and giving to the poor. With Mrs. Sourdough in charge, she would like to assure all future customers that the reputation was only gained because of poor previous management by Ken Kale.

Mustache Pete—Sicilian Mafia Member. Pete used to run a large operation in Sicily. Being such a small town in Missouri, why would he have any reason to come here?

Lucky Lucy—Pete's main lady. Lucky Lucy keeps all Pete's secrets. She runs a successful Laundromat but what kind of illegal activities happen in the back room after close?

Al Capone—Bootlegging Gangster. Capone is on Pete's side and his main income is from smuggling moonshine. Will he make a deal with Minnie to increase profits?

Machine Gun Kelly—Robber and Kidnapper. Kelly mostly gets what he wants by kidnapping and asking for ransom. Kathryn has his alibi for the night of Ken's disappearance, but can you trust them?

Kathryn Kelly—Machine Gun Kelly's Wife. Kathryn will do anything to help her husband succeed in his chosen line of work. Kathryn is great at talking up his reputation in underground crime-circles.

John Dillinger—Most Notorious Outlaw. Depression criminals are many but Dillinger is considered the robber of this era. Robbing banks and police stations are his specialty.

Baby Face Nelson—Assistant to Dillinger. Named for his youthful appearance and small stature, Nelson became close with Dillinger when he helped him escape prison. Nelson is said to have killed the most FBI agents out of all the criminals.

Helen Gillis—Baby Face Nelson's Wife. Also a member of the Dillinger gang, Helen and Nelson couldn't help but fall in love. Will the criminal life tear them apart or make them inseparable?

J Edgar Hoover—Director of the FBI. As the FBI's main law enforcement officer, Hoover calls the shots. However, rumors say he doesn't just work for one side...

P.I. Patterson—Investigator. As the private detective on the scene, P.I.'s job will be to take charge and decipher the clues and reveal the truth.

Previous Bank Owner Kidnapped

Two days ago, after not showing up to open the bank in the morning, Ken Kale was reported missing. Because of his affiliation with the local mob, kidnapping is suspected. J Edgar Hoover states, "At this time no one has been apprehended for the kidnapping of Ken Kale and there is little evidence to prove who committed this awful crime."

Ken Kale was the owner of The Bank of Avilla, a local bank established in 1915. Upon Ken Kale's disappearance, The Bank of Avilla has been sold to Mrs. Sourdough so that bank services will not be interrupted. Mrs. Sourdough made a public statement yesterday saying, "Though this disappearance is still a tragedy, your money will be safer with me anyways."

Life of Crime

Mug shots of all suspects in the kidnapping of previous bank owner Ken Kale will be taken in the prior to dinner being served. Mug shots can be e-mailed to suspects for personal records for the low cost of $5.
